OFFICIALS IN CHARGE OF SOCIABILITY RUN

Referee-William F. Gude. Starter-George A. Dentel. Clerk of course-J. M. Stoddard. Assistant clerk of course-Charles A. Jones.

Timers at Munsey building-E. P. Hough, E. H. Johansen, Walter S. Ward, A. O. Hutterly. Timers at Great Falls-Thomas Kirby, J. P. Yoder, J. R. Hilde-hrand, James Springman. Number clerk-Frank M. Scott. Assistant Starters-Claude Rogers, George P. Fayko, Gardner F. Johnson, F. F. Rogers, M. D. Lamborn, Jay Ward, S. T. Smoot, Frederick Walther, Martin Mauger, Roy King, E. L. McCarthy.

Contestants in the sociability run are advised to carefully read the instruc-tions that have been drawn for their benefit. By so doing, they will not only benefit themselves, but also assist in the prompt running of the event.

The method of starting, the route, the various speed limits, and the other details of the run are herewith set

The Starting Point.

Cars must report at the Munsey Building not later than 12 o'clock, Tuesday. Any car failing to report by 12:40 will be disqualified. Cars will approach from the west (facing toward Thirteenth street) to the Munsey Building, where each car will be given its handsome blue and white contest pennant and its official number.

The cars will then proceed down E street toward Thirteenth, down Thirteenth to Pennsylvania avenue, turning west up Pennsylvania avenue on the north side to a point opposite the Mun-sey Building, where the starter will be stationed. The cars will be lined up and started according to the number assigned them, four cars being started at a time. Drivers should place their cars four abreast, lining up in this manner 14 15 16 10 11 12 6 7 8

Starting Line (Facing West). Cars Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 will leave at 1 o'clock; Nos. 5, 6, 7, and 8 at 1:001/2, and so on down the entire list at half-minute intervals.

The Route to Great Falls.

Leaving the Munsey building, the cars will proceed up Pennsylvania avenue to Fifteenth street; up Fifteenth street to Pennsylvania avenue, crossing at Fifteenth street and New rors avenue, Proceed out Pennsylvania avenue, passing through Georgetown. At the Aqueduct bridge the asphalt will be left behind. Here the cars will get on the Canal road, but do not make the mistake of hitting up your twenty-mile schedule at this point.

Warning of Danger. The twelve-mile-an-hour limit prevails until you reach the beginning of the Conduit road, at the top of the hill from the Canal road. A large sign at the right gives authority to begin the twenty-mile gait. thority to begin the twenty-mile gait. This sign is 3.1 miles from the Munsey building. A short distance beyond is the reservoir turn, and care should be taken in negotiating this curve. There is a bad spot 10.6 miles out. Crossing a small bridge, the road makes an abrupt turn to the left, and then to the right. Take heed here. The Anglers Club is 13.7 miles. Here the macadam ends, and the remainder of the journey is over a dirt road that is in good condition. From this point on contestants should drive with caution, as there are several bad turns.

First Half Finish. The finish of the first half of the run will be at the gate approaching Great

Speed Allowed.

In setting the official secret time, the In setting the official secret time, the high Government official who will perform this duty will keep in mind the speed laws. The person who wins will be one who makes the route in compliance with speed regulations, both in the city and on the Conduit road.

Awarding of Prizes.

The winners of the Sociability Run and the official running time as fixed will be announced from the official stand erected in front of The Times office as soon as the scores can be made up by the big staff of competent officials. The winners will be announced about 6 o'clock. The finish line of the run will be on a line directly in front of the Munsey Building.

After crossing the line, where their time will be taken, drivers are requested to line up against the curb on E street, opposite the Munsey Building. Cars will take position as they finish.

"Big doings" in the neighborhood of the Munsey Building Tuesday afternoon. when the 181 cars entered in The Times sociability run to Great Falls and return line up for the start. As a large number of spectators will undoubtedly be on hand to see the start of the big event, Major Sylvester has detailed Captain Hollinberger and a large force of men

As the cars check in at Great Falls their time will be taken, and the drivers will be directed to proceed down the road a few yards to the hotel. They will then turn around and be lined up for the homeward trip. A large number of officials will be on hand to give directions. At least an hour will be spent at the falls.

The start from Great Falls will be the same as that from the Munsey bullding, except that the cars will be lined up in single file, owing to the narrowness of the roadway. However, four cars will be started at a time.

Speed Allowed.
